WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE JERSEY SHORE

MARCH 3 - 9, 2011

Aaron Gomes
Executive VP of Operations, Gomes Gaming/ Resorts Casino

Aaron's career in casino operations began in Las Vegas. He is a product of the MGM Mirage Management Training Program specializing in slot operations. During his tenure with The Mirage Casino Resort, Aaron, 28, worked as a slot attendant, a slot technician, a slot supervisor, a slot shift manager, a slot marketing analyst and casino marketing executive. In 2007, Aaron joined the Gomes Gaming team as vice president of marketing and operations to develop, open, and manage a 2,000 slot machine casino in Indianapolis called Indiana Live. Aaron was responsible for the slot department, the marketing department, and the execution and negotiation of casino related contracts. As of December 6, 2010, when the Gomes Gaming team took over Resorts Casino, Aaron has been the executive vice president of operations. Aaron is in charge of all casino and marketing related departments at Resorts.
